Prayer Tree Annual Angus Show

Margaret Watson, Vestry Secretary, shows the first prayer on the prayer tree that St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Brechin had as part of their stall at the annual Angus Show. All the prayers were offered up in church the next Sunday. People who would not usually have come anywhere near a church filled in prayer cards. 'It was a real opportunity to witness to the wider community.' said Father David Mumford, Rector of St Andrews. The tree is now planted within the church grounds.

Bishop's House on the shores of Iona

Bishop's House is an Episcopal retreat house on the shores of Iona and just a stone's throw from the world famous Iona Abbey. Volunteers are an active and vital part of the team, spending 2 to 3 months living and working. Staff are provided with a room of their own, meals, pocket money and two days off every week. Couple's accommodation can be provided if needed. For further information or to apply email the Warden at iona@island-retreats.org.

St. Ninian's Church Stay and Play Family Support Group for families in Mid Craigie/Linlathen and Douglas.

Are you a good listener?

Do you enjoy being around children?

Can you make soup?

If the answer to any of the above is yes, please do consider giving this very busy group 4 hours of your time on a Monday or a Tuesday.
