Lockdown Continues: But churches remain connected and open with Online Services

The current 'Level 4+' lockdown continues (and will, on into February, but churches remain open online for worship and pastoral care.

Online Worship for the Whole SEC

The Scottish Episcopal Church continues to offer 'national' worship online. A Sunday service, each led by one of the College of Bishops, will continue in the form of a Eucharist broadcast at 11am through the current lockdown and beyond, as restrictions ease.

This service has an option to hear the worship by telephone for those without internet access. There are more details and downloads of previous weeks' services at:

<https://www.scotland.anglican.org/broadcast-sunday-worship/>

Last week the service was 'hosted' by Brechin Diocese, with input from clergy and members of St Mary's Arbroath and St Peter's Auchmithie.

Prayer for Argyll—Bishop Process

Please keep the SEC Diocese of Argyll and The Isles in your prayers this week. They are electing a new bishop using Zoom and heard presentations from candidates last Saturday (23rd Jan) and will meet this coming Saturday (30th Jan) to elect the successor to Bishop Kevin Pearson who was translated to Glasgow and Galloway in 2020.

Link to Bishop Ellinah Wamukoya's Remembrance

Please continue to keep the Diocese of Swaziland and all of Bishop Ellinah's family in your prayers, as we are now a week after her death.

The Diocese of Swaziland has set up a new link to Bishop Ellinah Wamukoya's Remembrance service, which took place last Saturday. If you were unable to access the service on Saturday (there were various technical problems) the recording on this link is much higher quality and has tributes and the archbishop's sermon.

We will share any further news on memorials or the process that our companionship diocese will now follow. Dean Advent Dlamini, the dean of the cathedral, is the vicar-general so is the caretaker for the diocese following the bishop's death.

Making the Word Live - Sound Advice!

Reading the lesson in church?

"Easy!" "Nothing to it." "Stroll to the lectern and read!"

Well you can do it that way but a little thought and a little planning can make all the difference.

The Bible is a dramatic and exciting story book and no one expects an Oscar-winning performance from you, but the most thrilling and momentous passages need a little drama.

The Diocese is offering a ZOOM session to help you to engage with this important part of the liturgy well.

Please join us for an hour on Sunday 31st January 2021 at 3.00pm. The session will be led by Colin Lamont who is a drama teacher in Glasgow and ex Radio presenter.

Please contact Very Rev Fay Lamont on flamont53@sky.com or 07931222092 to sign up and you will be sent the ZOOM link .

If you are aware of any other sources of support in any of the areas covered by the diocese, please contact Elliott in the office and we can pass on the details.
