Seasons' Greetings to the Diocese of Brechin!

This latest edition of the Brechin Bulletin will take us through the seasons of Advent, Christmas and on into Epiphany in the New Year of 2020. This is also the last edition that will be a regular update of events – we will issue Bulletins in the future as and when there is a particular event, season or other information to be shared.

This Bulletin covers the events and services in Advent and Christmas 2019, and on into the New Year in 2020. The wider world has so much to distract and confuse: the usual busyness of Christmas shopping and festivities that starts earlier each year: and a general election taking place in early December as the country tries to decide what to do about Brexit and our political future. Add in the now usual concerns over terrorist activity (an attack has just taken place on London Bridge as I write these words) and climate emergency demonstrations, wars and rumours of wars, and we can be sure that we live in a world that needs Good News!

As we move into 2020 the Diocese of Brechin will continue to explore ways that the Scottish Episcopal Church in our part of the world can proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ in confident and sustainable ways. We will see some changes, for example a search for a new Provost at the cathedral in Dundee. We wish Jeremy, Christine and all the family all the best with their move to Oxfordshire. They will be missed very much in Brechin but they go with our prayers and blessings onto this new season in their lives and ministry. Clusters will continue to develop in the Diocese: the three areas of "Northern", "Coastal" and "Tay" have all now met to think about what their priorities will be. 2020 will be time of developing and supporting those priorities so that these mutual-support groupings of churches can become a normal part of our life in the Diocese. We will also see several more 'transitional' projects starting in the Diocese. These are deliberate projects to help churches decide what shape their future mission and ministry will take. The appointment of a suitably experienced and trained priest for a fixed period of time is the visible sign of a transitional project: the outcome will be a spiritual and practical process to get to a confident and rich future for all of our church communities. And finally, we will work to support all those who minister and worship in our church communities. We will help to provide training, spiritual development and ongoing help for all the disciples in our church. 2020 will be a busy and, I pray, rich year for the Diocese and the Scottish Episcopal Church.

The troubled and anxious world needs to see the light of Christ in all countries and communities. Our mission to be gathered communities of disciples, living out our faith and drawing others to that light, is a wonderful calling for the church in the 21st century. May I wish you every blessing as we share this journey together!

Brechin Diocese Support New After School Group

The Diocese of Brechin is supporting a new after-school group which now meets in the Crickety in Brechin each Thursday. 'Explore More' is run by a team of volunteers from the Brechin churches as a follow-up to the Holiday Club which ran in the summer and aims to teach the Gospel in a relevant and exciting way as well as providing life skills for upper primary children. Initial funding from the Diocese of Brechin has enabled the group to purchase some cooking utensils and baking equipment for the new project. So far the children have made healthy wraps and fruit scones. The children have made a list of suggestions for future sessions. Ball skills and trust games have also featured on the programme.

Brechin Support for the Diocese of Swaziland delegates in Iowa Youth Pilgrimage, August 2020

The Diocese already supports vital projects in Eswatini (formerly Swaziland) with many charges fundraising and contributing items for this southern African country. In August 2020, young adults from Swaziland, Brechin and Iowa will gather for the third leg of a youth pilgrimage, in Iowa. (Eswatini and Brechin have already happened over the past few years). The Swazi delegates will need help and support to finance and manage their travel to the USA. There will be various activities held in Brechin to help the African delegates with their travel costs: watch out for notices and appeals.

Diocesan Christmas Card 2020 Competition: appeal for photos from charges

Please could you take photographs of Advent and Christmas in your churches this year, for potential use for next year's Christmas card. This could be special services, decorations, a crib scene, an outside view with snow (that may happen this winter!).

There may well be a prize for the church that submits the photograph chosen for next year's card

2021 Scottish Episcopal Church Year of Pilgrimage

2021 is going to be a 'Year of Pilgrimage' for the SEC. Pilgrimage as a spiritual discipline is becoming more and more popular and significant in Christian discipleship. There are two national SEC trips being planned to the Holy Land and many local ideas for pilgrimage in and around our dioceses. In Brechin we will be planning a programme in 2020. One possibility is for three local pilgrimages around each of the 'Clusters' of charges in the diocese, with the Bishop and local church members travel some or all of the way between the churches of the diocese. Watch out for more information in early 2020.
