New Diocesan Centre Takes Shape

The Diocesan Office is now up and running at St John the Baptist Church in Dundee. The address is 38 Langlands Street, Dundee DD4 6SZ. Telephone 01382 459569 Email office@brechin.anglican.org

Our new premises include greater office space that includes board room and kitchen facilities, ample parking and disabled access.

We are very excited about focusing worship, outreach and administration on one campus. Diocesan Council has made its home here and we hope to hold Diocesan Synod at St John the Baptist in March 2017.

In the months ahead we look forward to finding a new use for the large downstairs hall and also developing worship within the church.

We hope to arrange an open afternoon in the near future. Meantime office hours are Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, 1.30pm—5pm and Tuesday, 9.30pm—5pm.

Over the summer, the office will be closed from Monday, 11th July at 5pm and will reopen on Thursday, 28th July at 1.30pm. Bishop Nigel or Dean Francis Bridger will be available during July and August should you need to get in touch.

HELP REQUIRED for WOMEN'S RETREAT

St Drostan's Lodge is booked for 9th -12th September to hold the Women's Retreat. 2 volunteers are required to run the Retreat this year as Reverend Jane Nelson is unable to. This will involve the advertising of the Retreat, bookings and catering for the weekend as well as someone to lead worship and meditation.

If you can help, please contact Reverend Jane Nelson

DEEP READING DEEP WRITING

RESIDENTIAL WEEKEND AT BOSWELL HOUSE

107 High Street, Montrose DD10 8QR

Friday, 30 September to Sunday, 2 October 2016

Boswell House is delighted to welcome back the well known writer Kenneth Steven to lead this residential weekend.

A Writing Retreat is a chance to take time-out from the hectic whirl of daily life to find the courage to engage with the imagination. It is about doing so with kindred spirits and learning more about the creative process – developing skills more effectively.

Kenneth Steven, a poet and writer of fiction for adults and youngsters alike, has for many years facilitated intensive creative writing sessions and published two hardback books on poetry.

Cost per person for the weekend - £125. This includes sessions with Kenneth Steven and Full Board.

If you are interested please contact Gerry and Aileen Loney on 01342 834249
