BISHOPS FAREWELL

Thank you so much to everyone in the Diocese for such a warm and kind Farewell Service and Reception at the Cathedral on Sunday 25 June. The congregation of two hundred represented everything that is good about the Scottish Episcopal Church. Every Charge in the Diocese was represented, along with numerous colleagues from our partner organisations around the City of Dundee and region. Thanks to the Dean and Provost and Cathedral Choir, and to Sharon Loudon my PA and Carole Spink my Chaplain for organising the occasion. People lingered long chatting, with their prosecco and Angus strawberries, which is always good to see.

Anne and I were pleased to see so many friends – those who have known us for forty years, back to my Ordination in the Cathedral in 1976, and to our early married life in Dundee with children Emily, Jennifer and Mark as well folk we have come to know during our years at Bishops House. We were truly overwhelmed by the generosity of your Farewell Gift as a diocesan family and anticipate using it for a special overseas holiday. Thank you also for the many other gifts, cards, letters and emails that have arrived at Bishops House.

Brechin Diocese will always be a big part of who I am: it shaped me as a priest and as a husband and parent, and gave me an enduring awareness of the importance of understanding context the particular history and the lives of the people and places the Church serves. So thank you for your friendship and support over the two periods I have served our diocese. Indeed my total of 22 years living in Scotland as a student, priest and bishop have, in the words of my in-laws, rendered me ‘Scottish by contamination’. I regard it as a privilege.

As Bishop I have been blessed to work with three great Personal Assistants: Jean Kelty and Jackie Milton (who have each moved on to greater things) and the personable and consummately able Sharon who I will miss greatly. She will support the Dean and Diocesan Secretary through the Episcopal Vacancy. Most importantly ‘thank you’ to Anne who has shared her life with me for 36 years, and has loyally supported (and sometimes suffered) my ministry in the varied appointments I have held, and in the places we have lived, and in the face of some significant life events that have left their deep imprint on us as a family. Thank you all so much.

Rev Jenny Morton led Diocesan Conference held at Dunkeld during May with an excellent attendance.

Our guest after dinner speaker was Sheriff Alfred Vannet who brought some tales from the Courts.

We were also lucky enough to have some of the best weather this year. Along with the location, we enjoyed the sunshine and time for reflection.
